PROGRAM OF THE DAY

Topic – “2ND CLUB ASSEMBLY”

President Helene introduced and led the Club Assembly providing an overview of projects and committees.

- Attendance: Must meet 50% attendance. Club will try to come up with more specific guidelines as to what constitutes a make-up meeting.
- District Conference will be held at Kalahari in Sandusky, OH.
- Started the Past Presidents Quarterly Meeting this year.

CLUB SERVICE

Rtn Linda Havens introduced the following members and sub-committees:

Programs: PP Bill Goad and PP Bob Woolf outlined the importance of useful, informative programs.

Marketing/ PR: Rtn Angelica Rinehart gave an overview of goal completion. It is projected that 50% of the goal to increase public relations has been met and 100% of goal to increase member awareness has been met.

Social Committee: PP Tom Hoffman and PP Ken Berlekamp were not present, however it was brought to the club’s attention their involvement in setting up the MESA Bike Tour dinner the Saturday night before opening ceremony, will be held at Eagle Isle.

Sgt at Arms: Rtn Jim Yeager reported that everything is going well and on target.

Ways & Means: Rtn Cindy Abdoo and Rtn Marilee Ladd are working on the Spring fundraiser, which they are 99% sure will be a “local artists’ auction” to be held late spring and to benefit the Camp Fire project.

VOCATIONAL SERVICE

Rtn David Wadsworth outlined the success of vocational awareness through meetings held at various places of business in the month of January.

Rtn Julie Kreilick spoke on behalf of STRIVE program with high participation and attendance from students. It was also brought up that there is a need for more participation from Rotarians.

Rtn John Lauer reported on the current progress of students of the month.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- PP Bill Goad spoke on Wellness and Projects and Improvements.
- PP Al Gorman has offered to help with MESA bike tour opening and closing.
- It is also being looked into to conduct a wellness health risk assessment with Rotarians.
- Through the community Christmas program, 3 families were sponsored.
- Rotary continues to sponsor boys and girls sports teams through the Rec Center.
- Also being sponsored will be the Easter Egg Hunt at the Hayes Presidential Center
- The maintenance of Rotary Signs.

INTERNATIONAL SERVICE

- Rtn Jim Ellis spoke about the MESA bike tour which will be starting and ending in Fremont this year (July 13-19), as well as the collection of supplies which were sent abroad.
- An “Interact Club” at Fremont Ross is being formed.
- World Community Workshop at Defiance College for high school students to go to learn about a specific are of the world; this year this focus will be on Africa.
- Received 3 applications for the 3 weeks youth exchange program.
- Currently looking into an international service project.

President Helene thanked all the members for their efforts, contributions and participation.
